Toronto JCCA Supports "Open Forum" Project, Would Serve to Create Better Local Interest

Strong support in favor of a "Nation-Wide Open Forum" was voiced by the Toronto JCCA last week at a special executive meeting held to determine their stand on the proposal which would replace the Modified Conference which was to have been held this year to provide a stop-gap until a full conference was held in 1951. It was pointed out that more local interest and participation was needed and the new plan would have that desirable effect.

Moreover it was stressed the holding of a forum, while giving increased participation generally, would be less costly than a modified conference. This, they declared, would be a much needed relief to local chapter funds. It was considered that the achievements to be expected of a modified conference did not justify the cost.

The forum would also give the opportunity to the Issei members to take part, they said. Thus, it would mean unrestricted participation to any member wishing to express himself.

It was decided that the Toronto JCCA would start preliminary preparations for holding the open forum, but until the outcome of the proposal is known, no detailed program will be made.

Is First Nisei To See Action In Korean War

Seaman A. J. Kobayashi of Fort William, serving aboard the Canadian destroyer Cayuga, is the first Canadian Nisei to be involved in action in the Korean war.

In a Canadian Press photo, the Nisei sailor is shown as a member of a boarding party interrogating members of an intercepted ship. Kobayashi is seen studying the ship's papers while the destroyer's executive officer waits for the translation.

HMCS Cayuga is one of three Canadian destroyers provided by Canada for the United Nations forces supporting South Korea.

There are several in the Canadian navy and it is possible that others may be aboard any of the three ships.

Fishing Slumps Off After Good Start

STEVESTON, B. C. — After a bumper first week in the Fraser River sockeye fishing which opened on July 31, it has slumped off since and catches are well below pre-season expectations. In fact, fishing is so unfavorable that another day has been added to the week-end curfew to increase it to four days that the fisherman cannot drop his net into the water.

With the return of the fishermen from northern waters, there are now 200 Japanese Canadian fishermen operating in the district.

Meanwhile, the canneries are operating on a full production scale. Many Japanese women are now employed in these canneries here, the largest of which is [illegible] Imperial Canneries.

DISADVANTAGES OF DISTANCE

While the overall result of the postwar dispersal of Japanese Canadians across the Dominion has proved to be a boon to those concerned, it certainly is disadvantageous to The New Canadian in numerous ways.

Take, for instance, the present railway strike. If we were still congested in that coastal segment of British Columbia, it would have been quite possible to deliver our publication without delay to the overwhelming majority of our subscribers regardless of a national ti-up.

As it is today, only those residing in Toronto and certain Eastern Canada centres are receiving their issues without a hitch. The others must await the end of the strike.

Then there is the matter of news coverage. We are often unable to give adequate of distant sentres murh as we like to. And coming events items are frequently sent in to us too late to serve its purpose.

When we agreed to undertake the arrangement of the first international all-Nisei softball series ever to be held in Canada, we would have been much happier if we could provide such events for everyone to view and enjoy. While we were happy to be given the opportunity to plan the games, we regretted that we could not provide something in which more Japanese Canadians could share.

Life In Japan Army In 'Long The Imperial Way'

By TAKASHI OKA

One week after Private Takeo Yamamoto had been inducted into the Imperial Japanese Army, he and his fellow conscripts, ordered to line up, found themselves being soundly slapped by five older soldiers. The squad leader, who had been watching the process, asked the dazed inductees why they had been slapped. "Because we have been loafing," "Because we do not understand the spirit of the army," "Because we do not polish the shoes of the honorable senior soldiers enough" were some of the answers given, and with each answer the conscripts were slapped again. Finally, one replied simply, "I do not know."

"That is right!" said the squad leader, and the slapping stopped. "When you are slapped, don't give any excuses. You do not trust your superiors enough. ... Attention ... As His Majesty the Emperor has been pleased to admonish in the Imperial Rescript, 'Uninfluenced by the worldly thoughts and unimperfected by politics, guard well your single destiny of patriotism.' Your single duty is to be patriotic to the Emperor. You need only to obey what you are told."

This is only one out of many similar incidents from "Long the Imperial Way," whose author spent three years as a private in the Japanese army occupying China. It is a graphic illustration of the extent to which the individual's value was denied in that army. Indirectly, it shows how, individual worth being denied, the sanctity of individual life was also denied and death exalted as the supreme objective of a Japanese subject.

As a novel, Mr. Tasaki's maiden effort shows plentiful evidence of immaturity. His characterization is fairly successful, but diffuseness, awkward construction, and limping dialogue hinder the total impact of a work which might otherwise well have become the Japanese equivalent of "All Quiet on the Western Front." The dialogue, with its peculiar conglomeration of American colloquialisms and sentences translated directly out of the Japanese, is especially unsatisfactory.

Nevertheless, the book's vital central theme does get across to the reader—the awakening of a questioning and rebellious spirit in a mind trained blindly to obey. Takeo Yamamoto comes from poor peasant stock. His unquestioning obedience springs from a combination of ignorance ... and ageless racial ... the mystic concept of ... state. But as he sees the ... conduct of the Japanese ... [illegible]

ing since Japan's surrender. He recounts, with unsparing detail, the sordid behavior of the Japanese soldier in an occupied land. The revolving donkey episode near the beginning of the book is a more searing indictment of Japanese excesses than any documented evidence of rape or of looting.

At the same time he attempts to show the context in which these crimes were committed through significant vignettes of the soldier's daily life, the repressions he suffers, his tiny hopes, his continual fears. He does not excuse the conduct of Japanese troops by ascribing it solely to the brutalizing effect of war in general. Rather, his implication is that the entire system under which Takeo and his fellow soldiers have been brought up since childhood is definitely wrong and must be rooted out.

How Takeo's "mighty anger" against the old order is to be channeled into a positive fight for a better way of life is a question the author leaves unanswered. The most valuable service Mr. Tasaki performs for the thoughtful Occidental reader is in showing what a tremendous mental chasm lies between Japan's old order and western democratic traditions. No easy formula can bridge this chasm. We can only hope that with sympathetic understanding guidance the wilderness experience of Takeo and those like him will not be unduly prolonged.

Korean War Creates Marital Problem For Nisei

カユーガ號の小林水兵

カナダ生れの日系二世が朝鮮戰争に活躍していることが先週末の英字紙に掲載されたカナデアン・プレスのニュース寫眞によって明らかにされた。すなわち先日北鮮軍占領下にある南鮮の港灣施設を爆撃してカナダ驅逐艦もいよいよ戰闘活動をはじめたと大きく報道されたカユーガ號乗組員エー・ジエー・小林水兵がその二世である。ニュース寫眞によるとカユーガ號は哨海中南鮮船を點檢（共産軍船が偽装しているかも知れないので）する前に上陸點偵察隊がカユーガ號から派遣されるが、その都度日英兩語を解する小林水兵が通譯となって、南鮮船が提示する必要な書類を一々通譯するという役目を果しており小林水兵の存在は重寶がられている

カナダ生れの混血兒

支那人を父にもち母を日本人とするカナダ生れの混血二世嬢が「どうかニューカナデアンを通してカナダにいるはずの父をさがして下さい」と新潟縣渉外課長の依頼狀と共に切々な手紙を本社によこして來た

私の父は中國人で劉保と云います、母は日本人で子供は私一人、カナダで生れた私は三才の時、父の顔も知らずに母と共に日本に歸り横濱で育てられました、十四才のとき父は一度横濱に歸って來ました、父は商賣の都合で米國加州に移り洋服屋を經營していましたが戰争で音信不通でしたところ、一九四一年五月、懐しい父から便りカナダからとアドレスが書いてありましたので喜んで再三手紙を出しましたが何等の返事もありません

ご老齢の父親の安否を氣づかっており、どうかニューカナデアンの努力で父の現住所をお知らせ下さいと日英兩文の「父上さま」は切實なる手紙である

日本人十年長生き
平均男は五十六で女は六十才

【東京發】戰前にくらべて日本人の平均壽命は十年ものびていることが明らかにされた、厚生省の發表によると

△一九四九年——（平均生命）男五十六才、女六十才
△一九四七年——男五十才女五十四才
△一九三五年——男四十六才、女五十才

となっておって男女とも平均十年も長生きしておりまだ十年くらいは増加するだろうとの事である、一般に文明國民の壽命は長いものだが、現在日本の平均生命はしだいに西歐文明諸國に接近している、これは戰後公衆衛生の發達による死亡率がへったためであり、總司令部の公衆衛生對策は日本人の平均生命のうえに大きなよい影響をおよぼしたものと見られる

鐵道の强制運轉へ 政府が議會に要求

【オタワ發】オタワ政府任命の調停者が努力したにも拘らず鐵道ストライキ同盟交渉はものわかれとなつて去る廿二日以來全國的な鐵道ストとなつて今日に及んでいるが、サン・ロラン首相は個人の資格でもう一度會社側と勞働者側が相談してみてはということで去る金曜午前から土曜にかけて前後數回にわたつて交渉會議を催したが、廿八日午後にいたる現在では何等の進行も見せず、この會議も無爲に終つたのでオタワ政府ではいよいよ廿九日（火曜）召集の臨時議會にスト解決法案を提出することになつた

（一）この法案がカナダ總督の承認を得て立法化されたら、二十三時間以內に鐵道從業者の仕事復歸を命ずる、もし之に違反すれば違法となり、恩給權利をなくする

（二）一方、鐵道を運轉させながら鐵道會社と組合代表らは交渉を再開して話をきめる

（三）それでも話がつかず、交渉が足踏みとなれば强制的な調停を行う

以上の點をふくめた法案が議會に提出されるものと見られ、おそくとも水曜夜までには最終討議を經て木曜朝には全從業者が仕事に歸り、金曜日には鐵道が運轉されるように望まれている

週末の交渉は失敗

【オタワ發】六日間にわたる全國的な鐵道ストライキ解決交渉も不成功に終つて、遂にオタワ議會に持ち出されることになつた、鐵道會社とユニオン代表らはできるだけお互の要求を讓歩し合つたが交渉は何らの結果も得ずに終つた

（一）賃金——會社は來る九月一日より時給四仙增しをオファーした、組合は今年六月一日から時給七仙增しを要求した、結局、二年間契約で五仙增しではどうかとなつた

（二）勞働時間——會社は來年九月一日から一週五日四十時間働きを提出した、之に對し組合はこの實施を三ケ月早くすることを要求

（三）組合はホテル及び水運業就働組合員（數千名）の要求もこの協約の中に加えることを要求した、會社では別個のものにすることを主張している

Sox Sweep Series, Enter 'Peg Finals

WINNIPEG — Bill Takeuchi became the toast of Diamond Sox baseball fandom as he led his team to a clean sweep over a fighting Kayo team to enter the finals against the league leading Maroons.

In the series opener, Freddie Matsuo bested Tucker Yamane in an 11-inning thriller. The game seemed all over when successive hits by Tucker Yamane and Mas Takeuchi put the Kayos a run ahead in the top half of the 11th inning. But the game Diamond Sox came back and loaded the bases on a hit by Sam Arizu, an error, and a walk. Up stepped Bill Takeuchi and after working the count to 3-2, lashed out a hit that cleared the short left-field barrier, and that was the ball game. Score 5-4.

In the final game, the Sox completely overran the Kayos by scoring 7 runs in the last inning and won the game 15-0, thereby taking the series.

The leading hitters of the series were the Takeuchi brothers, Bill of the Sox, .636, and Mas of the Kayos, .556.

Now the Sox meet the 1949 champion Maroons in a best of three series. — A. S.

ACCENTS ON SPORTS

The biggest surprise to us concerning the New York YBA-Toronto Nisei All-Stars exhibition series occured after we had finished the first game. It was an hour after the last putout had been made when we were tuned to Toronto's CKEY.

Joe Crysdale in his late night sport summary gave the results of the game between the "New York Japanese All-stars and the Toronto Japanese All Stars". We checked and found that Tak Hayashida had telephoned in the results. Both Joe Crysdale and Wes McKnight thanks to Tak, had published the game over the air.

[illegible] The fans will support these games against outside teams in Toronto. There was more than 700 on Saturday night, and [illegible] on Sunday. The only thing that we're not sure about is the weather [illegible] us worried but both games were played under ideal conditions.

It was just [illegible] not a drop spilled out, and it wasn't hot.

The Manhattanites are very anxious to come up this way next season, and are more than favorably disposed towards some sort of a tournament. Of course another important reason for their wanting to revisit is to avenge their double setback. We think that they also got to know quite a few Nisei girls up here, and though they didn't say it, we think that it is another reason why they want to come back.

And next time they'll bring up more than one pitcher. That was the biggest factor in the Sunday rout. He pitched Saturday night then 16 hours later he was throwing them again. Sandwiched in between the games, he and the other players were entertained at a party.

Their manager-coach, Yuki Morita, was the spark of the New York team and was a favorite with the fans for his antics. The [illegible] from the islands had lots to say in his Hawaiian drawl and his clowning [illegible] provided a lot of amusement for the spectators.

That Saturday game was a good game that you could have enjoyed outside of the top competition. Both teams played well, and the Toronto team particularly came up with a fine fielding display. And playing with the lighter and livelier American ball both teams were hitting [illegible] hits.

For all of us, it was the first time that we had seen ballplayers cavorting on the diamond in their bare feet and that in itself was quite a novelty. Shoes, they say, are awkward nuisances, and no feet should be encumbered in them.

Shows you what part climatic conditions play in our habits. We can't see ourselves running around on the baseball diamond which isn't exactly like beach sand minus foot gear. But if you were [illegible] look how much we'd save on leather.

Matt Matsui carried the load in organizing the game here. It was due to him that the games were run off as they were. He had to look after a lot of the details and certainly deserves a major portion of the credit.

In addition he was participating and assisting in the Nisei tennis tourney.

A number of others also helped to make the first Nisei international softball series a success. Sadao Nikaido of Towne Studio loaned his P.A. system, Joan Nikaido (no relation) helped us with the financial calculations, Reg Yasui and Ken Kutsukake kept scores and a host of others including several girls, helped us out in various ways.

But we were worried on Saturday night, the umpires were late [illegible] the equipment was behind locked doors and the man with the key was at the exhibition, the switches for the floodlights were also locked.

There were hundreds of fans waiting for the game to start, [illegible] prepared for a [illegible] excursion to where they found [illegible].

[illegible] was solved. Good old screwdriver.

Rikoran Offered Role In Broadway Musical

HOLLYWOOD — Shirley Yoshiko Yamaguchi, Japanese film star who has been visiting in Hollywood, has been offered the leading role in a forthcoming Broadway musical version of Donn Byrne's novel, "Messer Marco Polo."

Miss Yamaguchi, who has been starred in singing roles in Japanese films, also has been offered her first American screen role, the feminine lead in Anson Bond's independent production of "East Is East."

The Japanese star was approached regarding the Broadway musical by an agent for Stanley Gilkey and Donald Oenslager, producers of the forthcoming show for which Robert Nathan, noted novelist, has written the book. The score is by Robert Emmett Dolan and the lyrics by Johnny Mercer.

The Broadway offer, however, is contingent on Miss Yamaguchi's ability to obtain a six months extension of her stay in the United States. Her visa expires on Dec. 31 and she will need assurance of an extension if she is to consider the role of the Chinese girl in the story about Marco Polo.

Producer Bond, meanwhile, flew in from New York City to sign Miss Yamaguchi for the role in "East Is East." The story originally was about an American GI who marries a Japanese girl during the occupation of Japan. Since the Korean war the scenario has been rewritten by Katherine Turney and it is now about an American GI who is wounded in Korea and his love for his Japanese nurse. Keefe Brasselle will play the American soldier.

"East Is East" is described as a modern "Madame Butterfly" story. Originally, Shirley Temple was considered for the role of the Japanese girl before Producer Bond heard about the Japanese actress who has been in Hollywood for the past two months.

Niseis Start Potato Chips Plant in Japan

TOKYO — To get in the chips, three American army veterans, including two Nisei, recently introduced the potato chip to Japan. They have set up the first potato chip plant in Japan in Tokyo.

The three Americans, Albert Nakazawa of Cincinnati, Henry Shimojima of Chicago and E. A. Wanamaker of Seattle, conceived the idea of a potato chip factory last year after having completed service in the U.S. Army and their contracts as Department of Army civilians.

American-made chips cannot be transported to Japan efficiently since it can not be kept fresh beyond two weeks.

Their plant, which has a capacity of 600 pounds a day, uses California potatoes and American vegetable oil.

Fifty U.S. Professors To Teach In Japan

NEW YORK — Under a program sponsored by the Institute of International Education in New York, and the Supreme Command, Allied Powers, an opportunity to play a first-hand role in the reorientation of Japan will be given to fifty American educators, it was announced last week.

Professors will be chosen soon to teach in universities throughout Japan for a two-year period, beginning April, 1951. Teaching will be done in English and therefore, a knowledge of Japanese is not required. Fields will be English language, literature, social sciences, natural sciences, physical sciences, education, music, and library science.

Although many Japanese leaders and students are being sent to the U.S., this is the first large-scale effort since the war to take American teaching methods to Japan.

One of the queen attendants for the Nisei Week celebrations in Los Angeles last week was Miss Grace Aoki shown above. Sachi Kazunaga (Aug. 16) was chosen queen. — Rafu Shimpo
